About the Juror

Lawrence C. Barone, is a multi-disciplined artist and owner of The Gallery-Fine Art & Studio, located in historic Sackets Harbor. Lawrence is known mostly for his beautiful pastel landscapes of the North Country, but is also just as well versed in photography and other fine craft. Lawrence has a Master of Fine Arts Degree in Printmaking from U Mass Amherst and was an Art instructor in Gates-Chili (NY), Agawam (MA) and Horseheads School Districts (NY). He has had work selected for numerous juried shows across the country. Larry established his home, studio and gallery on the shore of the Black River Bay on the eastern shore of Lake Ontario to be close to his inspirations, the St. Lawrence River Valley and Adirondack Mountains. His gallery offers a collection of original art and prints.
