

SALMON RIVER FINE ARTS CENTER

“Hooked on the Salmon River” Art Exhibition Prospectus 2022

About the exhibit:

“Hooked on the Salmon River” is a themed exhibition that celebrates fishing and the beauty of the Salmon River and its surrounding area. The exhibit was developed to feature work from the region’s fine artists inspired by this beautiful and swift-flowing river that runs through the small historic village of Pulaski drawing fisherman, nature enthusiasts and tourists from all over the globe. All styles and genres of fine art and fine craft will be accepted from both emerging and established artists. Artwork will be selected by our judge Linda Bigness, an internationally exhibiting artist who runs and maintains Studio 245 in Syracuse New York. The exhibit will be on display from September 9 through October 22 at the Salmon River Fine Arts Center, located at 4848 N. Jefferson St in Pulaski, NY.
