President's Message

Dear art loving friends,

I am so looking forward to the love February promises! January has been quite a month navigating through sub zero weather, record high snow, unexpected gallery repairs, as well as planned renovations. When members of the gallery committee dreamed about making a few gallery renovations over the holidays, they had no idea how a disastrous leak could end up helping their dream come true! We are grateful to our new landlord, Vince Lobdell, for his generous heart and taking pride in our gallery to fund a beautiful new ceiling and floor where the water leaks left irreparable damage. We had already been working on painting walls, remodeling the check out area and installing a new professional hanging system (no more fishing line knots! ) — but working around contractors and weather problems, everything was delayed. The tasks to repair and renovate were overwhelming and much more complicated than we expected, but we sent out an email request to our volunteer list for help. The challenge was finding handy and experienced volunteers to assist in helping build out walls, install cabinets, assemble shelving, and install slat walls in our member gallery. Gratefully, Bill King, Jan Van der Heide, Tom Lambert, Howard Preston and Kathy Alderice stepped up to help. We are also grateful to many other volunteers that are helping to clean, clear, organize or paint and just make sure our organization is still functioning smoothly. If you aren't on our volunteer list but want to join in the fun to help beautify our gallery, let me know. It takes a team to make the dream! As of this writing, we are still making a final push to get the gallery open. We have adjusted the exhibit schedule and have been able to still hold some classes in our pottery studio. We're excited to re-open with a special three-week exhibition celebrating the incredible volunteers who made it all happen! This show, aptly titled 'Heart of the Gallery'—features original works by the volunteers who play a vital role in our organization. While not all of our volunteers are artists, everyone who helped us this past month will be recognized. We are so grateful to our volunteers for giving their time and talent to help create a beautiful gallery the community can be proud of and we all can enjoy. We hope you will join us at the reopening reception Friday, February 13th to support the arts center and our dedicated volunteers. What better way to kick off Valentine's day weekend than to celebrate our newly transformed space and show a little love for your community.

Love, light and gratitude,
Ann

Two Halves, One Heart: A Valentine's Couples Art Night

Instructor: Brooke Morse

Friday, February 13, 6:30-8 pm

Ages: Adult/Teen (14+)

Fees: $35 (25% off for members — $26.25)*

Fees are for the couple. $35 for the two.

Spend your Friday night creating side-by-side in this relaxed, hands-on Valentine's-themed art experience designed for couples, friends, or creative partners. This collaborative class invites pairs to work together on a shared artwork while exploring a variety of drawing and mixed-media materials — no experience necessary and mocktails provided.

After choosing their own subject matter, each partner will begin their own portion of the artwork before blending the two halves together, creating a unified piece that reflects both individual styles and a shared connection. We will offer guided prompts and gentle structure, but this is very much a choose-your-own-adventure style class. Perfect as a Valentine's date night, a creative night out with a friend, or a meaningful way to slow down and make something together. All materials will be supplied. Sign up on Square.

Students enrolled in this class will also have the option to come in during a designated time on Tuesdays (6-8:30 pm) or Friday (1-4 pm) to practice and work on their pieces. (Although there will be a monitor, there is no instructor for the open studio.) Total class time is 12.5 hours with the option of an additional 20 hours of open studio time during the class session. ### Plein Air Painting Workshop

Instructor: Kimberly Rossiter

Saturday, February 21 and Sunday, February 22, 1:00-4:30 pm

Fee: $35 (25% off for members — $26.25)***

This workshop is an introductory en plein air methods course, not a class on how to paint from the beginning. Participants should have prior experience with the medium of their choice (oil, acrylic, watercolor, or pastel). While beginners are welcome, this workshop will not cover foundational painting skills such as color mixing, brush handling, or drawing basics. The goal is for students to complete a small 5" x 7" piece of artwork painted en plein air, rather than a fully finished studio piece.

The workshop is a two-day experience. Day 1 focuses on preparation and knowledge-building, including equipment, setup, scouting locations, safety in the field, and an overview of plein air practices. Day 2 focuses on hands-on application, with students setting up their equipment and completing a study using the alla prima (wet-on-wet) painting method. For focused learning and consistency, the study will be completed indoors in a studio setting. Sign up on Square.

Elementary Class (ages 5-10) Tuesdays, Feb. 3, 10, 17, 24   3:30-5 pm Sorry! Class sold out.	Middle -High School Class (10+) Thursdays, Feb 5, 12, 19, 26   3:30-5:30 pm Sign up on Square.

In February, we will continue our glass art journey by creating a collaborative Dale Chihuly-inspired recycled “glass” installation that will be temporarily installed in a public space for the community to enjoy. Dale Chihuly is known worldwide for his large-scale, vibrant glass sculptures and colorful suspended installations that transform spaces and celebrate movement, light, and teamwork in the making of art. In this 4-session experience, students will work together to design, build, and assemble a large community art piece using recycled materials to mimic the look and energy of blown glass. This project emphasizes collaboration, creative problem-solving, and the power of public art — giving students the chance to not only create something beautiful, but also to share it with the community in a meaningful, impactful way.

Gifts can be structured to benefit the Arts Center during your lifetime, such as gifting stocks or bonds. You may also list the Salmon River Fine Arts Center as a beneficiary in your retirement plan, insurance policy or choose to include the Salmon River Fine Arts Center in your will as a bequest. This can be done by simply adding the following line:

Cash Legacy: To the Salmon River Fine Arts Center, located at 4848 N Jefferson St. Tax Status: 501c3, EIN #16-1405872, I bequeath a sum of $_____ to be used for general operating purposes as an unrestricted charitable contribution.

As a non-profit organization, we depend on charitable gifts and donations to be able to offer free or discounted art programs to people of all ages and backgrounds. Many people think that a legacy must be a large sum of money, but a gift of any size can have an impact. Even a gift as little as 1% of your estate, can help us ensure our vision of creating a vibrant, caring and creative community for generations to come.
