Edward Jones “Sunday Artists” Art Exhibition Prospectus

About the exhibit:

The “Sunday Artists” show is an annual exhibit featuring original work of amateurs, emerging artists, and semi-professional artists (those not making a livelihood with their art). The purpose of this show is to inspire and give individuals the opportunity to engage with other artists and have their artwork publicly exhibited and professionally judged. This year’s juror is Sharon Blair, a lifelong multi-disciplined artist who has had her work exhibited in many Central New York venues and has juried various regional art shows. This exhibition is hosted by the Salmon River Fine Arts Center, a non-profit 501(c)3 organization in the historic village of Pulaski, NY. Please note the show will be hung in the gallery as well as displayed virtually. However, to avoid large gatherings, the award ceremony will be held via Facebook Live .
